

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

Established 1860—58th Year. No. 17 Stanford, Lincoln County, Kentucky, Tuesday, February 27, 1917.

Tuesdays and Fridays

REGARDS FOR RETIRING PASTOR

Is Shown When People Of Community
Gather By Hundreds At Farewell Service Of Rev Walker

The farewell service at the Christian church Sunday night was as impressive as it was beautiful. It was the occasion of Dr. D. M. Walker's last Sunday as pastor of the church and he was so magnificently served and it was made memorable by both the evidence of esteem in which he is held and the splendid feeling and brotherly love of the churches here. The other denominations dismissed services and at 7 o'clock Sunday evening probably the largest crowd ever seen in Stanford Christian church had gathered to express in some way the love and admiration held for him who was soon to take his departure. Every conceivable space in the church was filled and for two hours the audience was held interested and edified.

That the "Shelbyville" church has succeeded in securing the most popular Christian preacher in Central Kentucky, none who saw the manifestations of Sunday night and know conditions will gainsay. Dr. Walker is a man of strength; a powerful speaker; an able preacher and in every way fitted for the work he has chosen. He is a student and a thinker, and possessed of indomitable energy and vim, his fight for good against evil is ever terrific. He compromises with no sin, nor "Preacher" Walker will not put his O. K. on it. Still a very young man, we expect to see him climb higher on the ladder of fame, and shall watch his record. Nine years ago he came to Stanford, then a mere boy, but he has grown into manhood and grown bigger and bigger in every way, and will continue to grow until the top shall have been reached.

The exercises of the evening began with a song, and later Dr. Walker read a favorite passage of scripture, Dr. F. M. Tindler, of Lancaster, who with a number of other members of his congregation had come over to be present on the big occasion, then offered a brief talk, telling of the purpose of the meeting and feelingly speaking of his appreciation of the gathering, after which Rev. P. L. Bruce, president of the Stanford Ministerial Association, paid his respects to Mr. Walker. The latter's life and work had been an inspiration to him and he felt a deep personal loss in his going away. For five years he had known him as a friend and coworker in the Master's Vineyard. Dr. W. D. Welburn, of the Methodist church, was glad that he had no jealousy in his heart, or he might have been worried a little by the many good things his members had said about Dr. Walker. "In fact," said he, "one of my staunchest and best members would have left the Methodist church this morning and heard Bro. Walker, had he not disliked to be out of the church as he has been." Continuing he said, "I love Bro. Walker for the enemies he has made, because I know he is on the right side in every fight and that when he makes an enemy out of a certain class of people, he does it because he is interfering with their illegitimate business."

Dr. Early, of the Baptist church, who was referred to by Dr. Walker as the "father of us preachers," was the next speaker. He had always had admiration for Dr. Walker because he fought sin wherever he saw it. He recounted the good work done in Stanford by him and regretted that he was soon to leave the pulpit which he had ably and conscientiously filled. Dr. Early admonished the members of the Christian church to stand by their pastor, whoever it be, and reminded them that it is a much easier task to get rid of a good pastor than it is to secure one.

The grand old man was at his best and his entire talk would make most interesting reading. Lack of space, however, prevents a fuller account of his timely message. Dr. Early's reference to Mrs. Walker and the two bright daughters was very beautiful indeed.

Dr. Walker, at this juncture, spoke for a quarter of an hour and so intensely interested was the enormous crowd that a pin drop would have been noticeable. He told of his love for his home people; the people among whom he had lived so long and who had been so good to him. He pleaded with them not to forget God, but on the contrary keep up the fight against evil and stand for right, it mattered not what the consequence be. "The lines between right and wrong are tightly drawn in this community; leave no stone unturned, nor spare any energy in your effort to meet the enemy and give him your best. I could hear of no better news; no message would be sweeter to me than to know that this people are standing for the right and battling that this church and this people and this community be made better," he said with much evidence of feeling. He thanked the pastors of the town and community for their uniform courtesy and the people, one and all, for what had been done for him while a resident of Stanford.

SEVERE COLD QUICKLY CURED
"On December first I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be, and was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherly, Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a few days until I was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere.

He had no ill-feeling in his heart against a soul, for long ago he had begun to pray for those who had tried to destroy him and he kept up that prayer until all feeling, except for good, had departed.

Dr. Tindler made a few appropriate remarks, after which a song was sung and the invitation extended. The old building fairly rang with music, for the congregation led by Dr. Walker, sang as never before. All four verses were sung, the benediction was said by Dr. Tindler and probably the most memorable service held in Stanford in a decade was brought to a close.

Friends of Mrs. Walker, the beloved wife of the pastor, presented her with a pocket book containing $100 "as a slight token of love and affection."

Not in years has the giving up for usefulness elsewhere of a Stanford citizen caused as much comment and regret and if the Shelbyville folk knew how hard it was for our people to give Dr. Walker and his excellent little family up, we doubt if they would have had the heart to take them from us.

Heard About Town

James M. Graves, Woodford county's oldest citizen, is dead, aged 91. The aged John Anderson, of the Preachersville vicinity, is very low and it is feared that he cannot last long.

James J. Russell and Miss Etta Watkins, both of the Middleburg section of Casey, were married Monday. License was issued from the county clerk's office here.

J. W. Adams, of Corbin, looking younger than he did when he lived in Lincoln county a dozen years ago, spent several days with old friends here.

R. M. Newland, local representative of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, will attend the banquet given by that company for the Kentucky agents at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington. Drs. E. J. Brown and W. B. O'Bannon will also attend. Messrs. T. W. Jones, W. O. Walker, W. H. Shanks and Wilson Alexander have gone to St. Louis and other cities West. Mr. Jones is agent for the wonderful feed, Purina, and the gentlemen accompanying him in order to see the substitute for corn and other cereals demonstrated.

HIGH SCHOOL PAPER

The first issue of The Lincolnian, published by the students of the Stanford Graded and High School was issued Saturday from the I. J. printing department. It is one of the handsomest if not the handsomest school publications published in Kentucky and reflects great credit upon its editors and publishers. Local merchants are patronizing its advertising columns generously, and it has received a cordial welcome from the friends and patrons of the school and the public generally. The staff as announced is as follows: Maurice L. Tucker, Editor in Chief; Tilden Cooper, Assistant Editor; Henley Cash, Athletic Editor; Clem Hill, Assistant Athletic Editor; Belle Russell, Society Editor; Annie Rogers Powell, Assistant Society Editor; Serena Young, Exchange Editor; Emma Hays, Class 1911, Alumni Editor; Lettie Walker McKinney, Assistant Alumni Editor; Hester Anderson, Reporter; Vie Gose Smith, Reporter; John Cash, Business Manager; John Reid McKinney, Assistant Business Manager; Matsy Grimes, Circulation Manager; Mary Bailey, Assistant Circulation Manager.

Ugh! Acid Stomach, Sourness, Heartburn, Gas Or Indigestion

The Moment "Pape's Diapiesin"
Reaches The Stomach All
Distress Goes

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into acids and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapiesin helps neutralize the excessive acids in the stomach so your food won't sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is upset, you usually get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it helps to regulate your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but sure. "Pape's Diapiesin" is positive in neutralizing the acidity, so the misery won't come back very quickly. You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, or any stomach disorder, due to acid fermentation.

Grover Noé, an employe at the Q. & C. shops at Somerset died there in the sanitarium Tuesday night of pneumonia. His remains were taken to his home at Morristown, Tenn., for interment.

SOMETHING GOOD

Those who hate nasty medicine should try Chamberlain's Tablets for constipation. They are pleasant to take and their effect is so agreeable and so natural that you will not realize that it has been produced by a medicine. Obtainable everywhere.

DOINGS THE COUNTRY OVER

Happenings Of State And Nation
Told In Brief For Busy
Readers

Nicola Marshall, said to be the designer of the Confederate flag, died in Louisville. He was 88 years old.

Mrs. Matthew Maury, sister of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, died at Lynchburg, following an operation for appendicitis.

The congressional press gallery has barred all persons having connection with brokerage houses as a result of the "leak" investigation.

Four men were probably fatally injured when a large touring car crashed into a northbound Madisonville street car in Cincinnati.

Army officers have been ordered to select sites for anti-aircraft guns to be placed at more than 150 points in the United States and its possessions.

A report has gained currency that the widow of the Multi-Millionaire James B. Haggin is soon to marry Dr. David Barrow, a noted Lexington surgeon.

Announcement was made by the German Admiralty that 1,000 troops bound for Saloniki perished when the Italian transport Minas was sunk February 17.

The State Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of the Georgia prohibition law, which limits the amount of liquor a citizen may have on hand at one time.

An amendment to the Sundry Civil Bill appropriating $400,000 for an investigation by the Federal Trade Commission of the high cost of food, passed the House 83 to 51.

Broadstairs and Margate, two undefended British ports, were bombarded by a fleet of German destroyers, one woman and one child being killed and two others injured.

The Jessamine K. of P. Association has elected the following officers: President, W. H. Hoover; vice-president, Everman Asady; secretary, F. D. Smith; treasurer, N. R. Smith.

The British troops in the Aneer region of France are reported to have taken additional ground from the Germans, including the village of Serre and several important points farther east.

Near Versailles Leonard Moore noticed a man walking a head of him in the darkness and shot to scare him. His aim was too good and the man who proved to be Matthew Samuels, a negro, fell dead.

The Everman railroad yards are congested with freight cars. The railroads are working night and day forces to relieve the situation. Officials say the congestion will hardly amount to a blockade.

Shortage of sleeping cars is proving a problem on the border and lack of equipment may delay the departure of the Third Kentucky Regiment for home. The soldiers are scheduled to leave El Paso March 2.

The body of Maj. Gen. Frederick Funston was interred in the national cemetery at the Presidio at San Francisco. The services were read in a driving rain. The great Presidio guns boomed out thirteen times as a last salute.

A resolution authorizing the President to use the armed forces of the United States to protect commerce, property and lives of the citizens of the United States was introduced last week in the Senate by Senator Fall, Republican.

Edwin Gould, Jr., son of the New York capitalist, was accidentally killed while hunting coons on a small island near Jekyll, when a coon on the head with the butt of his gun and the weapon was discharged, fatally wounding him.

According to a story in the World, Theodore Roosevelt is planning an expeditionary force, in the event of war with Germany, and will take it overseas and place it at the disposal of the Entente generals, after which he will lead it in accordance with the ideals.

Producers are opposed to the temporary plan of relief offered by the news print manufacturers, and stated last week in Washington that rather than accept the six months' arbitration plan of the manufacturers they thought it best to await the results of the Federal grand jury probe.

A Henderson dispatch says: Prices paid for tobacco here today indicate that the bottom has dropped out of the market. For the first time since the opening of the season the general average was under 10 cents. Sixty-eight thousand four hundred pounds were sold at an average of 9.88.

Several hundred women, after participating in a mass meeting in Madison Square to protest against the high cost of food, stormed the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, demanding to see Gov. Whitman. Refused admittance they started a demonstration which called forth the police reserves. The Governor was at another hotel.

The administrator of Charles C. Morgan, who burned to death in the Seventh Avenue Hotel, Louisville, in Dec. 1915, has been awarded $7,000. Morgan, who was from Green county, was spending the night in the hotel when it burned. Of the judgment $6,000 is against the owner of the property and $1,000 against C. P. McClary, manager of the hotel.

FOR A BILIOUS ATTACK

When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, bloating of food, constipation, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and then bile, you may know that you have a severe bilious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effectual. Obtainable everywhere.

STIFF FINES FOR GAMESTERS

Colored Crap Shooters Soaked In City Court—King Murder Trial
On In Higher Tribunal

The February term of the Lincoln circuit court will have to get a move on itself if it accomplishes much at this session. Only one case was tried from Wednesday afternoon until Monday and that was of minor importance. John Farmer sued T. B. Hammonds, for $182.60, amount he claimed due him. Mr. Hammonds and wife presented a counter claim of $240.60, and the result was Farmer got a judgment for the entire amount and Hammonds for $8 and was ordered to pay the costs.

Monday afternoon the court room was turned over to Police Judge R. L. Davidson and Bill Lee was brought before him. He caught a fine for $60 for permitting whisky to be sold on his premises, and $50 for gaming. "Chicken" Hansford, who was charged with selling whisky on Lee's premises, caught a fine of $60. He is laying it out in jail.

Charlie Baughman, charged with witnessing a game of craps, was made to plank over $5.

Fields Salter was given a fine of $20 for shooting craps.

Charlie Hocker was acquitted on the charge of gaming.

Katie Brewer, on the charge of disorderly conduct, was given the preference of 60 days in jail or leave town. She chose the latter and the riddance is an excellent one.

The grand jury has returned 11 indictments to date. It will not be in session again until Friday.

In the circuit court this morning the trial of John Baker for the killing of Renzo King was begun. The killing occurred at Moreland in August of last year and it will be remembered that Baker used a corn knife, splitting open the head of King, who died a few days later. Baker was indicted at the November term of court and has since the killing been confined to the Lincoln county jail. He is being defended by Attorneys J. S. Owsley, of this city, and C. C. Bagby, of Danville, while Commonwealth's Attorney A. A. Huddleston, of Cumberland county, will assist Commonwealth's Attorney Puryear and County Attorney W. S. Burch in the prosecution.

Up to noon the following eleven jurors had been secured: W. R. Dillon, Nathan Hall, B. M. Cowan, Ed Poynter, R. L. Albright, M. F. Eubanks, Ed Ballard, J. L. Holtzclaw, G. W. Crawford, Sim Hickson, Dr. J. H. Turner. It was hoped that the twelfth juror would be secured and that work on the case would be in progress by 2 or 3 o'clock.

Later—W. M. Duncan was the 12th juror accepted.

LANCASTER COURT

A large crowd attended Lancaster court Monday, but business generally was quiet. There were less than a dozen cattle on the market, and C. R. Martin, of Danville, picked them up at a bargain price. They were of an inferior class. Lots of mules were on hand and they sold well. Prices ranged from $106 to $190, a pair extra good ones brought $180. A number of pairs sold at $300 to $350. The horse market was quiet.

Politics seemed to have been forgotten, for the time at least. Two candidates for State Senator—H. Clay Kauffman and J. R. Mount—live in Lancaster but neither was out on the street long enough to shake many hands. Jay Harlan, of Danville, the other entry for the office, did not put in appearance, being willing, probably, to let the good county of Garrard go for its favored son, Jim Beazley, an old Stanford boy, did a good deal of hand-shaking in his race for Representative. Hogan Ballard, his opponent, is said to be making an active canvass, but he will have to step some to defeat the ex-Lincoln county man, who is a campaigner and organizer of high quality.

AGED CITIZEN PASSES AWAY.

Mr. Benjamin Holtzclaw died at his home in the Preachersville vicinity at 11 o'clock Sunday morning after a protracted illness of a complication of troubles, aged 75. His funeral was preached at the late home at 10 o'clock Monday morning, after which his remains were laid to rest in the Ashbrook burying ground, just beyond Dix river. Mr. C. McClary officiated at the funeral services. For many years Mr. Holtzclaw had been a member of the Crab Orchard Christian church and there were few, if any better citizens in the county. A wife and sister survive the good man, and unfortunately they are both ill.

CONCRETE WALL FALLS

The greater part of the north wall of the concrete warehouse of J. H. Baughman & Co., west of the mill fell outward at the noon hour yesterday, and for that reason but little damage was done to its contents. It is said that too much pressure was placed against the wall just after it was finished and before it was seasoned which caused it to spring and finally fall. The owners had just purchased material with which to repair and strengthen the wall.

THE BEST RECOMMENDATION

The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendation of those who have it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. Mrs. Amanda Gierhart, Waynesfield, Ohio, writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my family off and on for twenty years and it has never failed to cure a cough or cold." Obtainable everywhere.

VERY LITTLE WAR TALK.

Will Severance, head of the firm of Severance & Son, dry goods dealers, has returned from New York City, where he went to buy goods. Asked if there is much war talk in the metropolis, he said: "The people of New York City are too much engrossed in making money to talk about the war. In fact very little is said about it. Of course papers are gotten out every hour, and while they sell readily, general news seems as much sought after as war dispatches. The people of the East are after the dollar and from the appearance of business generally they are getting them. While in the city I had a pleasant talk with Richmond Rochester, who was born in Stanford, and who is remembered by our older citizens. He is a prominent broker and has made lots of money. He impressed me with two things: First, that he is big man, and secondly, that he is a fine gentleman."

News Of Churches

Presbyterian Church—Mid-week service at 7 o'clock, "What Is It To Magnify God," Psalms 57. Teachers' Class at 8 o'clock.

Messrs. W. B. McKinney, J. B. Paxton, W. H. Higgins and P. M. McRoberts motored to Lexington and attended the Laymen's convention last week.

Rev. Joseph Hopper spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. Kittie Hopper here late last week, en route back to Louisville from the Presbyterian Laymen's convention at Lexington.

For the first time, according to statistics soon to be issued by the Rev. H. K. Carroll, of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, the enrollment of the religious bodies of the United States has passed the 40,000,000 mark. The figures include Protestants, Roman Catholics, Orthodox Catholics, Jews and all other religious organization and sects. The increase in membership during the past year was 746,669, of whom about 500,000 were Protestants. The Methodists are credited with a gain of about 136,000, the Baptists with 132,000, Presbyterian and Reformed Churches with 67,562, the remainder of the half million increase being divided among more than 100 other sects. Dr. Carroll has found that during the past twenty-six years the net increase in the membership of all religious bodies in the country has been 94 per cent., while the population of the country increased in the same time only 61 per cent.

THINKS AUTOS WILL BE SCARCE

T. F. Rockwell, state representative of the Studebaker automobile, has been in town for several days with Messrs. J. W. Acey and E. Thomas Pence, Jr., agents for that great car. He told an I. J. representative that automobiles will be very scarce this year and thinks that the man who will be able to secure one will be lucky. Particularly he will be lucky, he said, if he gets a Studebaker. Detroit manufacturers build between a half and two-thirds of the cars in the U. S. and freight cars are so hard to secure that it has been decided to drive them over the roads to those who buy them, should they live within 400 or 500 miles of the "Automobile City," as Detroit is known. Europe is turning out no cars and the demands from that and other foreign countries is so great that the supply is not equal to the demand. Foreign cars may be necessary and adequate to protect our ships and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas. A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuits of peace in quietness and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas." A sufficient sum was asked from Congress to carry out the President's plans. The President announced that he was not "now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it," but merely was requesting the authority "

PLEASE REMEMBER!

This Bank Is Seeking Your Business and is fully equipped and prepared to care for it.

On Jan. 9, 1917, its Surplus Fund was increased $ 1,500.00
Making its present Surplus Fund 30,000.00
Its Capital is 50,000.00

The First National Bank

Stanford, Ky.

J. S. HOCKER, President H. C. BAUGHMAN, Cashier
S. T. HARRIS, Vice-President C. HAYS FOSTER, Asst. Cashier
W. W. SAUNDERS, Ind. Bookkeeper

5,000,000 Corns
Lifted Right Off!

Try 2 Drops of Magic "Gets-It."

There's a wonderful difference between getting rid of a corn now and the way they used to try to get rid of it only four or five years ago. "Gets-It" has revolutionized corn history. It's the only corn remedy today that acts on the new principle, not only of shriveling up the corn, but of loosening the corn off—so loose that you can lift it right off with your fingers. Put 2 drops of "Gets-It" on that corn or callus tonight. That's all. The corn is doomed sure as sunrise. No pain, or trouble, or soreness. You do away once and for all with toe-bundling bandages, toe-eating salves and irresponsible what-nots. Try it—get surprised and lose a corn. "Gets-It" is sold everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

"See? Just 2 Drops of 'Gets-It' Now Tomorrow I'll Just Feel That Corn Right Off—and It's Gone!"

Sold in Stanford and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by The Lincoln Pharmacy and The Penny Drug Store.

Personal and Social

Coming Events

Feb. 28.—Regular meeting of Woman's Club at 3 p. m. Annual election of officers.

G. C. Givens is able to be out after an illness of several days.

Mrs. W. L. Porter, living out on the Lancaster pike, is quite ill.

Miss Lee Thompson, of Cincinnati is the guest of Miss Nancy Yeager.

Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Osborne returned to their home at Knoxville Monday.

Mrs. H. J. McRoberts and Miss Mary Bruce were in Louisville Saturday.

Mrs. Bud Gooch, of Waynesburg, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. L. McCarty.

Master Wallace Andrew DeHaven, of Mt. Sterling, is the guest of Misshome after a visit to her parents.

Nancy Yeager, Mrs. DeHaven will join her son here Saturday.

Mrs. Alfred Eads, of Shelby, is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Newland.

Morris Jones, of St. Louis, Mo., is the guest of J. B. Jones and other relatives here.

Misses Dora and Minnie Straub were in Louisville last week buying millinery goods.

Mrs. H. R. Sautley and sons, Rowan and George B. Sautley are in Louisville for several days.

Robert Goode, of the Perryville section, came up Sunday to see his sister, Mrs. B. D. Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Owens, of McKinney, were the guests of Mr. and George F. DeBorde Sunday.

O. Dunham, of Hustonville, is at the Desota, this city.—Tampa, Fla., correspondence Courier-Journal.

Mrs. Albert Phillips has returned from Mt. Sterling after a visit to her parents.

Figuring Tire Cost

Firestone Tires

Ours is the champion service—the expert, courteous kind that makes motoring safe, easy, and almost trouble-free. So we sell Firestones—a complete line of Tires, Tubes and Accessories—in order that you may get that service in the highest degree at lowest cost. Come in and let us prove it.

H. C. Carpenter, Local Agent

An Elegant Assortment of WATCHES

Just received direct from the factory—to be sold at

Popular Prices and Guaranteed

If you need a watch don't fail to inspect this line. We also have in stock, Watch Fobs and Chains, Cuff Links, Bracelets, LaVallieres, Rings, Fountain Pens, Etc.

The Lincoln Pharmacy
J. W. ACEY, Proprietor Stanford, Kentucky

Mr. and Mrs. Beaumont at Nicholasville.

Mrs. Nancy Smith is up again, having had gripe for the past week.

Mrs. W. H. Porter is out again after having a severe attack of gripe and throat trouble.

Misses Elizabeth Simpson and Elizabeth Grimes, of Lancaster, were to see Mrs. Will Porter last week.

Miss Ella May Saunders has returned from Cincinnati, where she went to buy some spring millinery goods.

Misses Minnie and Dora Straub have returned from the cities having purchased their spring millinery goods.

Mrs. P. E. Kemp and aunt, Miss Amanda Gogin, of Louisville, are the guests of Dr. T. W. Pennington and family.

Mrs. W. P. Givens and daughter, Miss Isabella Givens, of the Shelby City section, spent Sunday with Miss Belle Denny.

Mr. Spears Fisher, of Danville, was in the city this morning. He told the I. J. that his wife continued in very poor health.

Claude Thompson, a former Crab Orchard boy, but now of Iowa, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collier at Crab Orchard.

Mrs. Lee Rupley has returned after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robinson and sister, Mrs. Sanders at Perryville.

Miss Ella May Saunders went to Louisville this morning to meet a Fiske drummer with a complete line of these up-to-date hats.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kerr have returned after a visit to relatives and friends at Versailles and Lexington and are domiciled at the Goodnight farm on Danville pike.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. LeCompte and daughters, Misses Margaret Jane and Dorothy Crutcher, of Frankfort, spent Sunday with her father, Mr. Cicero Reynolds and sister, Mrs. A. P. Hunn.

Rev. and Mrs. F. M. Tindler, Miss Martha Tindler, Mrs. Price and Mrs. Lula Johnson were among the crowd that came over from Lancaster Sunday evening to hear Rev. D. M. Walker's farewell sermon.

News has been received here of the serious illness of John M. Waters, of Parson, Kansas. He was taken to a hospital at Sedalia, Mo., where he was operated on for appendicitis last week. The last report from his bedside to his mother, Mrs. Rhoda Waters, was that he was thought to be improving slowly.

John McRoberts, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mount, formerly of Lancaster, but now of Atlanta, Ga., met with a very serious accident last week. The little fellow was playing on the steps and fell something like fifteen feet breaking one of his legs. The mother was formerly Miss Jennie Lynn of this city.

Mrs. Claude Pennybaker, of Danville, has returned home after spending a few days in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mershon. D. S. Gooch spent Wednesday in King's Mountain, on business. Mrs. M. C. Williams, who has been ill with gripe for the past few days is reported to be some better.—Somerset News.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine has been taken by catarrh sufferers for the past thirty-five years, and has become known as the most reliable remedy for Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the Blood on the Mucous surfaces, expelling the Poison from the Blood and healing the diseased portions.

After you have taken Hall's Catarrh Medicine for a short time you will see a great improvement in your general health. Start taking Hall's Catarrh Medicine at once and get rid of catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.
Sold by all Druggists, 75c.

The bills providing for further taxes on whisky and beer will be opposed by the "drys" in the General Assembly of Kentucky, who believe that if passed they will deprive them of arguments in favor of State-wide prohibition, it is stated.

Fire that destroyed the plant of the Kentucky Public Elevator Company at Fourteenth and Gallagher streets in Louisville, entailed a loss estimated at $700,000, including a quarter of a million bushels of wheat, corn, rye, and oats.

Lancaster

Mrs. F. F. Browning and baby left Sunday for a visit to her parents, in Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, of Nicholasville, are here visiting their daughter, Mrs. S. G. Haselden and Mr. Haselden.

Mrs. Carrie Davison and Miss Bet West left Friday for a visit to relatives in Tulsa, Okla.

Mrs. L. N. Miller is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson at Richmond.

Hon. Ashley Swope of Lexington, is here the guest of relatives.

Mrs. W. B. O'Bannon of Stanford, was the week end guest of Mrs. W. T. West.

Cecil Brown, Owen Hendren and Alex Doty attended the reception given at Millersburg Military Academy Friday night.

Miss Margaret Cook and Charlie Elmore have returned from a visit to Miss Cook's brother, Robinson of Millersburg. They attended the reception Friday night.

C. E. Business Meeting—Was well attended Sunday night and the C. E. is preparing for the district convention to be held in Danville soon.

All the sick of the county and town are much improved in health.

Nimrod Crump, receiver of hemp for Spears & Sons, is kept quite busy. Garrard raises one of the finest hemp crops, raised in Central Kentucky as well as tobacco.

John Gill and Robert Kincaid sold to John Cress, a five-passenger Hupmobile and also one to G. B. Swinebroad, and to W. O. King a roadster. The word "Kincaid" is enough said, and these young progressive and hustling business men, are the agents for the Dodge car, and will no doubt sell a great number of this popular car. It is impossible to keep "good fellows" down.

Rush Branch

People are rejoicing over the pretty days we are having at present and lots of farmers are busy sowing tobacco beds.

Mr. R. D. Edwards has moved on Mr. George Rankin's place.

News has reached here that Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gerkey have gone to Hustonville, where they will make their home.

Mrs. James Floyd and little daughter, Flossie were calling on Mrs. E. L. Miracle Sunday.

Evatt Givens was in Stanford Wednesday.

There has been lots of sickness in this neighborhood.

W. M. Miracle, of Pineville, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Miracle.

Virgil Hester is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hester.

We are glad to state that Miss May Manning is better at this writing.

Child Hates Oil,
Calomel, Pills For Liver and Bowels

Give "California Syrup Of Figs" If Cross, Sick, Feverish, Constipated

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they are doing to their children.

The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup Of Figs." Its action is positive but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup Of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

WILL DRILL SOON

Norman King, E. R. Aker and Theo. Mohr, of Lexington, were in the city Monday, en route to the Ottenheim section, where they have leased 100 or 500 acres of land for oil and gas purposes. The properties adjoin the land of Albert Schuler, on which is a gas well that has been burning for weeks. The three gentlemen are wide-awake young business men and have struck something good in the above leases.

1918 INSTEAD OF 1917

It is a handsome 1918 model Studebaker car which Acey & Pence have on exhibition here at the latter's store room on West Main street and not a 1917 model as the I. J. stated last week in write-up concerning this handsome car. It is attracting a lot of attention and being generally admired.

Senator John W. Kern, Democratic leader of the Senate, who will retire from that body on March 4, will be appointed to a good office under the National Administration. If he is not made a member of the International Joint Commission, whose members receive a salary of $7,000 a year, he will be appointed to some office that is "just as good."

HYOMEI
(Pronounced HIGH-O-ME)
ENDS CATARRH, ASTHMA, Bronchitis, Croup, Coughs and Colds, or money back. Sold and guaranteed by The Penny Drug Store, Stanford, Ky.

Take a Tip

From Us

Buy Your

Tobacco Cotton

From Us

N O W

It will not only be higher, later, but scarce

Severance & Son

Wonderful Stuff
Lifts Out Your Corns

Apply A Few Drops Then Lift Corns Or Calluses Off With Fingers—No Pain

No humbug! Any corn, whether hard, soft or between the toes, will loosen right up and lift out, without a particle of pain or soreness.

This drug is called freezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone, which cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus.

Put a few drops directly upon any tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callus will loosen and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This drug freezone doesn't eat out the corns or calluses but shrivels them without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Just think! No pain at all; no soreness or smarting when applying it or afterwards. If your druggist don't have freezone have him order it for you.

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

The home of Miss Eddie T. Carpenter, of Hustonville, was a scene of gayety last Saturday evening when eight or ten happy couples, who she had invited to spend one more evening with Miss Carrie Lewis Edwards before her departure, assembled. Unexpectedly as it was, for the crowd went from the rink, leaving there at an early hour. The affair was altogether delightful, progressive and being the chief amusement.

Those present were: Miss Carrie Edwards and Dunn Sandidge, Miss Eddie T. Carpenter and Chas. Dunn, Miss Roberta Tucker and John Hicks, Miss Clara Nunnelle and Benjamin Pruitt, Miss Elizabeth Stagg and Roger Hicks, Miss Katherine Warrier and Lee Tuney, Miss Martha Tucker and Alger Weddle, Messrs. Claude Dinwiddie, Horace Riffe and Carlisle Myers.

Miss Edwards, who is from Los Angeles, Cal., has been visiting Mrs. Sophia Carpenter here, and other relatives in Danville, for several months and now she is leaving for Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, where she will be until early summer. She will then return to California, by the way of Kentucky and spend a few days in Hustonville. Miss Edwards is indeed a charming young girl, and will be greatly missed by her many friends there.

SPRING CLEANING TIME

Come to our store and see our complete line of wall paper, druggists, matting, lace curtains, window shades, O-Cedar polish and mops. We have furniture for everybody. Pence & Hill, Stanford.

"THE OLD RELIABLE"

PLANTEN'S C & C OR BLACK CAPSULES

REMEDY FOR MEN. AT YOUR DRUGGIST.

VISIT
The Bargain Store

Special price on C. M. C. now 8 cents.

Complete line of Luxor Toilet Requisites; soaps, creams and powders.

A bargain of four cakes of Buttermilk Soap for 15 cents

Don't fail to ask about the Ladies' silk hose, all colors, now 39 cents.

Special price on Men's work shirts, 60 cents now 48 cents.

Other bargains await you at this store.

Don't fail to come to see our line of spring and summer goods

Ginghams worth 15 cents now 12 1-2 cents

BargainStore

Salem & Salem
Stanford, Kentucky

NOW IS THE IDEAL TIME TO VISIT

FLORIDA

or the
GULF COAST RESORTS

Get away from the cold and enjoy life in the land of Sunshine and Flowers

Low round-trip fares and excellent service via
LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD

For Particulars, call upon local agents of this railroad

WHARF MASTER LIVELY AS EVER

Greenup Man, Once All Run Down, Gets New Energy.

THANKS TANLAC FOR CHANGE

"I used to swell up like a frog after eating," said James Wayson, wharf-master at Greenup, Ky., "but that was before I started taking Tanlac. That bloated feeling took all the life out of me and made me tired and droopy. I didn't seem to have a bit of ambition. But it's different with me now. I sure feel fine."

"Before I took Tanlac I was eating practically nothing—just a little soup and milk now and then—my stomach wouldn't stand anything stronger. After eating—no matter what or how little—I belched and bloated. I was nervous and dizzy all the time."

"I dreaded for night to come. I couldn't sleep. I tossed about all night and woke up in the morning all tired out. I could barely stand on my feet during the day. I got discouraged. I didn't know what to do."

"A friend told me to try Tanlac. I hesitated at first, because I had tried many things and taken many tips from friends. But I got Tanlac or this friend's advice and I thank God that I did. It did the work."

"Today I am in fine health. I sleep fine and am not nervous a bit. I have a big appetite. So, you see, it's no wonder that I urge others who suffered as I did to get Tanlac right off!"

If you are not feeling right get Tanlac today. Delay in health matters is dangerous.

Tanlac is sold exclusively in Stanford at The Penny Drug Store, E. R. Coleman, Proprietor.

Tanlac can now be obtained in following nearby cities: Moreland, Abraham Minks; Hustonville, Adams Bros.; McKinney, True & Co.; Ellisburg, Joe McWilliams; Middleburg, W. C. Bryant; Crab Orchard, Lyne Bros.; Brodhead, John Robins; Lancaster, R. E. McRoberts; Bee Lick, J. Reynolds & Son; Waynesburg, W. A. Horton.

Cuban regulars have taken Camaguey and defeated the rebels at several other points, according to a statement given out in Havana.

A snow slide which struck the North Star mine of the Federal Mining & Smelting Company at Halley, Idaho, carried away a bunkhouse, killing fifteen and injuring fifteen others. Three other miners are missing.

The Only Keeley
Institute in Kentucky

For any information apply to
J. B. WILLIS

Crab Orchard, Kentucky

CASH for ACCOUNTS

We get you cash on Accounts, Notes, Claims, by collecting quickly anywhere in United States. Collection guaranteed or no charges. : : : : : MAY'S COLLECTION AGENCY
Somerset, Ky.

20-Year FARM LOANS

in sums of $2,000 or more. No loan fee charged. Phone or Write

D. A. THOMAS
Lancaster, Ky.

R. M. NEWLAND

Headquarters for Best
FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE
Phone 168 and 48. Stanford, Ky.

Farm and Stock News

Buffalo had 22,000 head of veal calves last week.

E. T. Pence sold in Lancaster yesterday his crop of hemp at 14c.

Charles Rogers, of Garrard county, sold a mare mule to Wm. Robinson for $185.

J. M. Cress sold to R. M. Blackerby a pair of four-year-old mare mules for $340.

Bob Henry, of Lancaster, sold to Ed and N. B. Price, also of Garrard, 16 600-pound steers at 8c.

J. H. Thompson, of the Preachersville section, bought of Chris Wyle, a pair of mare mules for $325.

Bob Burnside, of Garrard, sold to Jasper Herndon at Lancaster Monday a pair of mare mules for $350.

J. D. Whitehouse, of Boyle, bought Monday of a Garrard county party, a three-year-old mule for $145.

Pence Bros., of Marcellus bought a pair of six and seven-year old mules from James Bean for $375.

W. T. Tucker, south of Stanford, sold to J. D. Whitehouse, of Boyle, a car load of 850-pound cattle at 7-3-4c.

G. A. Swinebroad, of Lancaster, sold to Will Robinson, of Boyle, a pair of four-year-old mare mules for $480.

Robert White, of the Preachersville vicinity, sold to Rubles, of Garrard, a six-year-old mare mule for $190.

Center Bros., of Garrard county, bought of J. D. Fain, of the same place a four-year-old mare mule for $180.

William Wilder has rented A. T. Nunnell's farm out on the Preachersville pike and will take possession right away.

W. T. Doolin, of the Marcellus section of Garrard county, sold to Wils Rogers, of Paint Lick a five-year old mule for $145.

Joe Lee Murphy bought of John Rubles, of Boyle, a pair of mules for $310 and of Gilpin, of Casey, he bought a mare mule for $150.

E. F. Spears & Sons, of Paris, closed a deal for the purchase of the remainder of Clark county's hemp crop, consisting of about 1,000,000 pounds, at $14.10.

C. M. Dean sold at Lancaster court day one pair of six-year-old horse mules to W. B. Moss for $325, and a pair of seven-year-old horses mules to T. M. House for $325.

T. W. Jones bought of Fred Von Gruenigan ten hogs that averaged 178 pounds at 11 cents and of Albert VonGruenigan a small bunch of of same weight at same price.

J. T. Ragsby, a well known stock dealer of the Preachersville section, sold to G. A. Swinebroad, of Lancaster, two yearling steers, averaging 450 pounds at six cents a pound.

The L. J. was in error in last issue in the sale of W. T. Tucker's bunch of cattle that he sold to J. D. Whitehouse of Danville. There were 25 head averaging 750 pounds and he received $7.75 per hundred instead of $6.50.

Mason H. Pollard, of Garrard, has sold his crop of tobacco at an average of $20.26. He told an I. J. representative that he raised a good crop on the Wyatt K. Pearce farm, which has some of the best tobacco land on it in the county.

One of the best prices for corn paid in this section is reported from Madison county where T. E. Baldwin, Sr., sold to the Zaring Milling Company 2,000 bushels of corn at the crib for a round $2,000. Delivery is to be immediate.

Center Bros., stock dealers of Garrard county, sold a pair of five-year-old mules to V. A. Lear, of Lancaster, for $400; a four-year-old mare mule to Woods Walker, of Paint Lick, for $250; and a pair of mare mules to Harvey McBeath, of Hedgeville for $375.

Swinebroad Biggest Cream Seller

G. B. Swinebroad, of Garrard, was the best patron of the Stanford Creamery in the month of January. That is, he sent more cream to it. He milks ten fine Jerseys and during the month mentioned sold $134.17 worth of cream. Besides this, his family used milk and butter unsparingly and five calves and 15 shoats got a liberal supply of milk. By the way, the Stanford Creamery is the only one in this section of the State that is being operated, and we are glad to know that it is being operated successfully. The machinery is in the very pink of condition, the business is on the increase and a nice dividend was paid the first of the year. Fred Baumann, the elev-

I Am Mighty Proud of My Home— And For Very Good Reasons!

A Rooster that Crowed—

A Dog that Barked—

and a Youngster that never was Still—

The big factory on the hill—how well I remember it—the brook, the mill, the tree with the robin's nest in it!

There was a rooster that crowed every morning, a dog that barked every night, and a youngster that never was still—Me—SOVEREIGN.

I remember the soft south wind that blows gently over the tobacco fields,—the long rows of waving plants of tobacco—and how carefully they are tended, and raised, and cured, and stored—all for the sake of me, SOVEREIGN!

You bet you—I'm proud of my home here down South,—of my old Virginia and Carolina stock! No cigarette in the world ever had such good blood and breeding,—nor such a fine family,—nor such a clean, white, wholesome home.

That's me, SOVEREIGN, a Southern gentleman, and one of you-all and a part of you, because—

You Folks of the South KNOW good blood!

You folks of the South KNOW good tobacco!

I'm going to spend all my days right down South here among my good friends like you—and I am proud to say this, too—

I am guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co. —Buy me. If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.

Sovereign Cigarettes

FOR THE GENTLEMAN OF THE SOUTH
"King of Them All"

er manager, is the man for the place he fills. He is vitally interested in the success of the enterprise and gives of his time and energy to the business. He can be found on the job early and late, and believing that cleanliness is next to Godliness, he keeps the creamery scrupulously clean at all times.

PUBLIC SALE

I will offer for sale on

SATURDAY, MARCH 3, 1917

at one o'clock sharp, the following described property:

One pair extra good heavy work mules, 7 years old, 16 1-2 hands high.

Two good work horses, 9 and 12 years old, respectively; gentle for any body to drive; not afraid of automobiles or cars; safe for women to drive.

One extra good Peavine horse; an exceptionally good driver, and fast on the road; 6 years old, 16 hands high. (If not sold before.)

Two extra good riding cultivator plows, in good condition, with six blades to each plow.

One good Disc cultivator, all right to hitch to; does fine work; has six discs and is serviceable.

One Disc harrow, good as new; 12 discs.

One sweep rake, good as new.

One hay rake—good one.

Two good turning plows, Vulcans, No. 12.

One hay frame, good one.

One extra good mowing machine,

McCormack.

One extra good farm wagon—"Mitchell." There is nothing like a Mitchell wagon.

Two good sets wagon harness; also a lot of plow gear, hay forks, mattocks, picks, trace chains, harness, collars, etc., one extra good log chain—best in the county.

One good rubber tire buggy and harness, good one. Many other things too numerous to mention.

Terms made known on day of sale. Remember the date—Saturday, Mar. 3, 1917, at one o'clock sharp, on rural route, No. 2, Danville pike. My reason for selling is that I am getting too old to farm.

JAMES H. EADS, R. D. No. 2
Stanford, Ky.

99 Reasons

why it pays to buy ALUMINUM WARE! First reason, it lasts; second reason, it satisfies; third reason, it is modern and sanitary; the other reasons you will find out after using. Come in and see the many useful articles we have for your kitchen.

W. E. PERKINS,
Crab Orchard, Kentucky

Mr. Farmer!

Implements Are Advancing!

So don't delay placing your orders for future delivery.

W. H. Higgins

Mr. Farmer---

We have on hand now a number of Chattanooga Plows—the best on the market for your spring needs. Come in and look them over before you buy.

GEORGE H. FARRIS

BAUGHMAN'S

"HEN FEED"

We are making a mixed feed for chickens from clean wholesome grain and feed, proportioned to make an ideal food for the fowl.

Here is the Mixture:

Cracked corn, wheat, buckwheat, sugar cane seed, oats and barley. All feed—no waste in it. Try some now—you will like it. $2.50 per 100 lbs.

J. H. BAUGHMAN & COMPANY
STANFORD, KENTUCKY